Stegeman Coliseum

Georgia volleyball will play every 2022 home match in Stegeman Coliseum. The volleyball team opened the newly-renovated arena on October 11, 2017, with a match against Tennessee. The most recent renovation, completed in September 2017, was highlighted by a center-hung video board along with other improvements, including new seats, an LED lighting system, and an all-new sound system.

Christened in 1964 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and, for years, it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

Stegeman has undergone thorough renovations in the last few years, receiving a 21st Century face lift. When fans arrived during the 2017 season, they walked in to the final product following more than $20 million in renovations over the past several years.

That summer, the arena received a massive center-hung video board, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system, and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in the summer of 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000 square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Ramsey Student Center

Georgia's $40 million Bernard B. and Eugenia A. Ramsey Student Physical Activities Center is where the Georgia Bulldogs volleyball team is housed. One of the nation's largest on-campus facilities for recreation and fitness, the Ramsey Center features a three-court volleyball arena and amenities, all utilized by the Bulldogs for practices. The Ramsey Center encompasses 440,000 square feet - UGA's Sanford Stadium could fit inside the center's more than five-acre footprint - and the variety offered is as vast as the area covered. Four gymnasia, three swimming pools, seven group fitness studios, climbing and bouldering walls, an indoor challenge course, 10 racquetball courts, two international squash courts, two strength and conditioning rooms, four cardiovascular overlooks, a one-eighth-mile indoor track, equipment checkout and Pro Shop, an outdoor equipment rental, and resource center are all available under one roof.

The first volleyball match played in the Ramsey Center was on September 22, 1995. Prior to playing in the Ramsey Center, the Bulldogs' home volleyball matches were held in the Women's Physical Education Building. With a seating capacity of 1,925, the Ramsey Center Volleyball Arena produces a lively environment featuring the Redcoat Pep Band, UGA cheerleaders, and Georgia mascot Spike!

During the summer of 2009, new additions were added to the volleyball area of the Ramsey Center with the program's coaches moving into new offices along with the addition of a theatre-style team video and scouting room, a new athletic training room, a new visitor's locker room and a lounge that features a sitting area and nutrition station.

Named the best recreational facility in the country by Sports Illustrated in 1997, the Ramsey Center is a constant reminder of the University of Georgia's commitment to athletic excellence and the realization of what is required to achieve greatness.

The team video room, located in the coaches office suite, is an ideal location to break down film and hold team meetings.

Murals and wall graphics throughout the facility highlight the history of Georgia volleyball including All-Americans and All-SEC performers.

University of Georgia

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math, and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

#1 College Mascot

Olympians Made Here

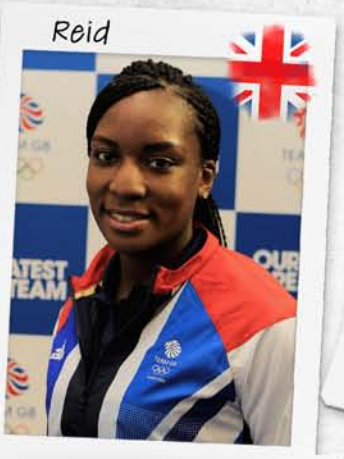
The University of Georgia has a strong tradition of producing world-class student-athletes who go on to compete on the world's biggest stage. Georgia volleyball has featured three student-athletes competing in Olympic volleyball action in its history.

Elizabeth Reid (2010-11) became Georgia's first Olympian to compete in volleyball when she represented her home nation of Great Britain when London hosted the Games in 2012. Alexandra Oquendo (2002-05) played for Puerto Rico in indoor and Britta Burthe (2007) played for Germany on the beach in 2016 in the Rio Games.

Before he became head coach of Georgia volleyball, Tom Black was an assistant coach for the USA Women's National Team in Rio. Team USA went on to win the Bronze medal in 2016.

Former Georgia head coach Jim Iams (1989-99) was an assistant coach from 1985-88 for the U.S. Women's Olympic team and an advisor for the 1992 Barcelona and 1996 Atlanta Games.

Long before the volleyball program competed full time in Stegeman Coliseum, the venue was used for preliminary men's and women's volleyball action during the 1996 Atlanta Games. Stegeman also played host to rhythmic gymnastics. Today, spectators coming to Stegeman Coliseum can see the monument dedicated to the University's Olympic athletes outside of the building, which was erected in preparation for the games. The University of Georgia also utilized Sanford Stadium in 1996, hosting soccer matches. History was made in Athens when the U.S. women's soccer team won the gold medal for the first time.



2022 Season Outlook

The 2022 Georgia volleyball season will be the 44th of the program in Athens and the sixth under the direction of head women's volleyball coach Tom Black.

The new season brings new opportunities for returning Bulldogs to compete for playing time and newcomers to the roster to make an immediate impact on the court in 2022.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Bulldogs return 68 percent of their kills from a season ago, led by over 300 kills apiece from senior outside hitters Kacie Evans and Amber Stivrins. The pair alone accounted for 44 percent of Georgia's offensive efforts in 2021.

In her limited action as a true freshman last year, Abby Maesch recorded 2.65 kills per set in her 26 sets played. Freshman Estelle Haugen will look to bolster the Bulldogs' attack on the outside.

Senior Meghan Froemming locked down the starting role on the opposite pin the second half of the 2021 season and will expect to start in the same role this season. Backing her up will be freshman Tori Harper, the Nevada Gatorade Player of the Year. Between the two of them, the right side will bring offensive and defensive expertise.

The middle will held down by four formidable Bulldogs, led by graduate Sage Powell who has played 279 sets in 83 matches as a Bulldog. Newcomer Sophie Fischer, a 6-5 transfer from Kentucky, is expected to contribute starting day one on the court. Fischer brings a size the Bulldogs haven't necessarily had in a few years and Georgia's blocking game will continue to grow with Powell and Fischer in the middle.

Behind Powell and Fischer is redshirt-sophomore Mackenzie Norris and redshirt-freshman Kaitlin Fournier. Norris appeared in just 19 sets last season but put up 18 blocks with 15 kills. She will challenge both Powell and Fischer for playing time in the middle. Fournier will look to make strides in her game play after redshirting last year.

A pair of Bulldog setters will be running the Bulldogs' 6-2 offense this season. Sophomore Clara Brower was part of a duo that ran a 6-2 offense last season. Redshirt-junior Alexa Fortin will join Brower calling the shots in 2022. Brower handed out over seven assists a set as a true freshman. Fortin has seen limited action in her three years but has made strides in the gym since the final match of 2021.

On the defensive end, Georgia's primary liberos from 2021 both return and will compete for playing time wearing the libero jersey. Junior Mallory Downing began the season as the starting libero last season but then-freshman Bailey Cox earned the starting nod down the stretch for the Bulldogs. Fans can expect to see a tight battle for the position this season. The duo, along with six-rotation outside hitter Evans, accounted for 47 percent of Georgia's digs in 2021. Freshman Ana Julia Bleeker brings defensive specialist and outside hitter experience to the bolster both sides of the ball.

2022 SCHEDULE

Georgia's 2022 schedule features three opponents that concluded the season in the AVCA Top 25 and eight NCAA Tournament participants from a year ago.

The 29-match schedule is set to begin with back-to-back tournaments hosted in Stegeman Coliseum Aug. 26-27 and Sept. 2-3. Georgia will play host to Troy, Chattanooga, and Santa Clara on opening weekend. The following weekend, Charlotte, College of Charleston, and Texas Tech will all descend upon Athens. Both tournaments will be six-match round robin tournaments.

Georgia will hit the road in week three, going to Boston for a trio of matches. The Bulldogs will take on Iona and Northeastern Friday, Sept. 9. Both matches will be played at Northeastern. Georgia will then play at Harvard on Saturday, Sept. 10.

The final week of non-conference action will begin in Fayetteville, Arkansas when Georgia takes on NC State Thursday, Sept. 15. The Bulldogs will return to Athens to host Georgia Tech Saturday, Sept. 17 in the non-conference finale.

Southeastern Conference action begins on the road Wednesday, Sept. 21 at Mississippi State.

Georgia's home SEC schedule features South Carolina (Sept. 28), Texas A&M (Oct. 1-2), Alabama (Oct. 22-23), Kentucky (Nov. 2), Arkansas (Nov. 6), and Ole Miss (Nov. 18-19).

Along with Mississippi State, Georgia will face Auburn (Oct. 8-9), Florida (Oct. 19), Missouri (Oct. 28-29), Tennessee (Nov. 11), and LSU (Nov. 25-26) on the road in 2022.

TOM Black

HEAD VOLLEYBALL COACH

18TH SEASON OVERALL (319-182)
SXITH SEASON AT GEORGIA (77-67)

Head women's volleyball coach Tom Black is in his sixth season at the helm of the Georgia volleyball program in 2022. Black was named the seventh head coach in the history of Georgia volleyball on December 22, 2016.

Black and the Bulldogs concluded the 2021 season 12-17 overall and 8-10 in SEC play. Following a tough non-conference slate, Georgia went on to earn conference victories over Texas A&M, Auburn, Ole Miss, and LSU including series sweeps of Missouri and Alabama. The Bulldogs' eight SEC wins finished eighth in the league in 2021. Georgia's schedule finished 35th in strength of schedule in 2021, one of the toughest among SEC opponents, playing six ranked opponents. At the service line, Georgia continued to shine in 2022, ranking second in the SEC with 1.46 aces per set and 167 total aces, led by Amber Stivrins' 47 aces on the season.

The 2020-21 season featured a conference-only slate of 22 matches. The Bulldogs split the fall portion of the season, going 4-4. A milestone victory came on November 21 in Gainesville, Florida when the Bulldogs defeated then-No. 5 Florida in four sets. Not only was it the first win against Florida since 2008, it was the first win in Gainesville since 1986, and the first win over a top-10 opponent since the same win against Florida in 2008 when the Gators were ranked No. 8. It became the program's highest-ever ranked win and first over a top-5 opponent.

Georgia concluded the 2020-21 campaign 8-14. Black and the Bulldogs finished the season on a high note winning three of their last four matches of the season including taking two against Ole Miss in the final home series. Phoebe Awoleye was tabbed All-Freshman Team by the SEC. Awoleye finished fifth in the league with 1.05 blocks per set. She became the third All-Freshman Team pick of Black's tenure at Georgia. As a team, the Bulldogs' blocking game saw its best performance under Black's guidance in 2020-21, finishing the season with 2.25 blocks per set, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Black guided the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019 since Georgia's most previous trip in 2013. Georgia concluded the season with a 20-10 overall record and a 12-6 clip in SEC play. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark under Black. The last time the Bulldogs had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.

Led by 2019 SEC Freshman of the Year Kacie Evans, the Bulldogs finished third in the league in kills per set (13.83) and hit .232 as a team. All-SEC setter Meghan Donovan dished out 1,271 assists. Donovan, along with Kendall Glover, became the newest members of Georgia's 1,000-Dig Club in 2019. Junior Rachel Ritchie notched her 1,000th kill in 2019, becoming the 18th member of Georgia's 1,000-Kill Club. The season was highlighted by a road victory over No. 12 Kentucky. A six-match SEC winning streak, including the win over the Wildcats, was the longest in league play by Georgia since 2008. Georgia earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and drew Cal Poly at No. 3 Stanford. The Bulldogs took a 2-0 lead on the Mustangs but fell in five sets in the First Round.

Off the court, the Bulldogs were just as strong in the classroom during the 2019-20 academic year. The team earned its first AVCA Team Academic Award and was recognized by the NCAA in the annual NCAA APR report. Seven members of the team earned spots on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and all four members of the freshman class appeared on the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll.

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs finish over .500 for the second-straight season. The 2017 and 2018 seasons were the first back-to-back winning seasons since 2008 and 2009. Georgia concluded the 2018 campaign with a 15-14 overall record. The season began on a seven-match winning streak capped by a four-set victory over No. 24 Colorado on the Buffs' home court. It was the first win over a ranked opponent since 2013. The non-conference slate ended with a 9-2 record.

In February 2019, Black was named the head coach of the Canadian Women's National Team. Volleyball Canada won the FIVB Women's Challenger in Lima, Peru in June, qualifying for the Nations League Tournament in 2020. Black stepped down from the position at the end of 2020 to focus on Georgia and the Spring 2021 season.

In his first season at the helm, Black took a Georgia team that had one Southeastern Conference win in two seasons to a fifth-place finish in the league. The Bulldogs concluded the 2017 campaign with a 22-12 overall record and a 10-8 SEC clip. Finishing fifth, the Bulldogs clinched an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), advancing to the semifinal round.

Under Black's instruction, the 2017 team finished second in the SEC in kills per set (13.75), fourth in hitting percentage (.243), and first in aces per set (1.57). In all, the Bulldogs finished in the top four of every offensive category in the conference. In RPI, Georgia made one of the greatest turnarounds from the prior season, jumping 132 spots to 57.

BEFORE GEORGIA

Black, an accomplished collegiate and international coach, was named the seventh head coach of the Georgia volleyball program in December of 2016.

Black came to Athens with 12 years of NCAA collegiate head coaching experience with time at UC San Diego and Loyola Marymount, accumulating a career record of 242-115 after posting six seasons with 20-plus wins.

Working with some of the top athletes in the country, Black was extremely active with the U.S. Women's National Team, working alongside U.S. head coach Karch Kiraly. Black most recently served on the staff at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games as an assistant coach, as the United States garnered a bronze medal.

Black spent seven seasons at Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles, leading the Lions to 127 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2015 after upsetting No. 13 Colorado State and No. 6 Stanford. His team notched back-to-back 20-wins seasons in 2014 and 2015. In 2014, the Lions entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll at No. 23 and held a national ranking for five weeks.

During his stint, 21 student-athletes earned All-West Coast Conference honors while he oversaw four AVCA All-America selections and six AVCA All-Region picks. Black saw one of his players earn the WCC Defensive Player of the Year in four of the last six years while also garnering AVCA Region Freshman of the Year in 2014.

Prior to LMU, Black served at the helm of Division II UC San Diego women's team for five seasons. Black went 115-29 with the Tritons and had his team ranked in the AVCA national poll every week for his final four seasons. UCSD ranked as high as No. 2 in 2009 while finishing in the top 10 in two seasons. The 2006 Tachikara/AVCA D-II Pacific Region Coach of the Year, Black coached 20 All-Conference honorees as well as four All-America selections.

Black's involvement with the U.S. Women's National Team culminated in his selection as an assistant coach with the team in March of 2013. Black was with the team at the 2016 Rio Olympics, helping guide the United States to a bronze medal. Black also assisted with Team USA prior to the team winning its first world championship gold medal at the FIVB World Championship in October 2014 while the team went on to win the 2015 World Grand Prix Championship and a Bronze Medal at the World Cup.

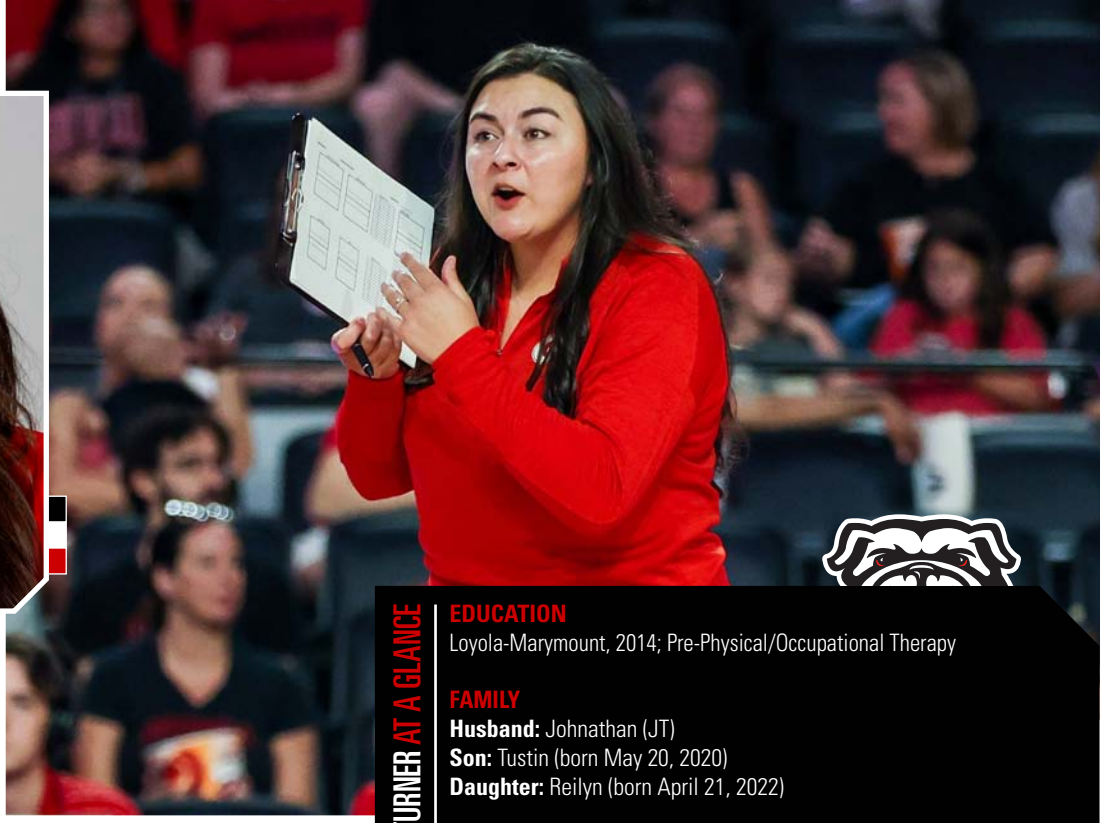
Before being named as an assistant within the program, Black spent three summers as a consultant coach as the National Team prepared for the 2012 London Games.

Prior to his time at UCSD, Black spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the men's volleyball program at USC. He also served as the men's head coach at Pierce Junior College and Thousand Oaks High School as well as an assistant for Pierce Junior College's women's team and Royal High School's boy's team.

Black received his bachelor's degree in political science from UCSD in 1996 where he was also a four-year letterwinner, setting numerous hitting records and earning All-MPSF honorable mention honors as a senior in 1996. The California native was Volleyball Magazine's Small College Player of the Year in 1996, while also earning Small College All-America honors that same year.

Black and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Kylin and Emerson.

In his third season at Georgia, Black guided the Bulldogs to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2013. Georgia played Cal Poly in the opening round at No. 3 Stanford.



FELICIA Turner

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
SIXTH SEASON
LOYOLA-MARYMOUNT, 2014

Felicia Turner is in her sixth season on the Georgia volleyball coaching staff in 2022. Turner was promoted to Associate Head Coach prior to the 2020 season after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant on Tom Black's staff.

The Bulldogs offensive production rose half a point in 2021 to 12.44 kills per set. Kacie Evans tallied 3.10 kills per set to lead the Bulldogs on the season, followed by 2.79 from Amber Stivrins. Georgia's blocking efforts continued to improve from previous seasons in 2021 as the team once again registered over two blocks a set at 2.18 as a team. Phoebe Awoleye and Sage (Naves) Powell ranked 11th and 12th, respectively, in the SEC in blocks per set.

Georgia concluded the 2020-21 season with 11.93 kills per set, led by newcomer Stivrins (3.53 kills/set), Rachel Ritchie (2.62), and Evans (2.57). The Bulldogs' blocking game shined in 2020-21, finishing the season with 2.25 blocks per set and ranking fourth in the SEC. Freshman Awoleye finished fifth in the conference with 1.05 blocks per set en route to SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

In 2019, Turner helped guide the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2013, taking on Cal Poly at No. 3 Stanford. The Georgia hitters recorded a .232 hitting clip in 2019 while finishing third in the SEC with 13.83 kills per set. SEC Freshman of the Year Evans finished ninth in the league with 3.63 kills per set and 4.03 points per set.

During her second season mentoring the Bulldogs, Georgia ranked fifth in the conference with 13.17 kills per set. Sophomore outside Ritchie was an SEC top-10 performer in the category with 3.35 kills per set.

Turner helped guide Georgia to its best season since 2013 during the coaching staffs' first season. In 2017, the squad completed the season with a 22-12 overall record and a fifth-place finish in SEC play with a 10-8 clip. In RPI, the Bulldogs jumped 132 places from the previous season to 57. The Bulldogs ranked second in the SEC with a 13.75 kills per set average and fourth with a .243 hitting percentage.

In her last three seasons at LMU, Turner was an assistant coach for the Lions, mentoring the team to a pair of NCAA appearances, including a historic run to the Sweet 16 in 2015 after knocking off nationally-ranked Colorado State and top-10 Stanford in Palo Alto, California. Along with the postseason action, Turner helped LMU to two 20-win seasons. The 24 wins LMU recorded in 2015 were the most for the program since collecting 26 in 2003. In 2015 LMU also finished third in the West Coast Conference, another best for the team since 2003. Under Turner's guidance, LMU had four AVCA All-America selections, six AVCA All-Region picks, an AVCA Region Freshman of the Year and 11 All-Conference honorees along with the Defensive Player of the Year in 2016.

Turner stepped into coaching after completing a successful collegiate career at LMU and has quickly proven herself as one of the top young coaches, as she was named to the 2016 AVCA Thirty Under 30 Awards list.

Turner has learned from some of the best coaches in the nation, spending her summers as an intern with the USA Women's National Team alongside Tom Black who was an assistant with Team USA. In addition, she also served as an instructor at a pair of Gold Medal Squared Volleyball camps during the summer of 2014.

Over five years as a Lions player, including a 2011 season, in which she missed the entire year due to offseason surgery but was still a captain and leader from the sidelines, Turner amassed 752 kills to rank 22nd in LMU history. Completing her playing career in 2013 before graduating in 2014 with a degree in pre-physical/occupational therapy, Turner also posted 882 digs at a rate of 2.34 per set.

The Laguna Niguel, California, native was an integral player in building the LMU sand volleyball program, earning a spot in the 2013 AVCA Collegiate Sand Volleyball National Championships pairs bracket. Turner also coached the beach volleyball team, as the squad entered the 2015 season ranked No. 5 in the nation.

Felicia married Johnathan (JT) in June 2019. The couple has two children Tustin and Reilyn.

AARON Benning

ASSISTANT COACH
SIXTH SEASON
CAL STATE EAST BAY, 2014

Assistant coach Aaron Benning is in his sixth season with the Georgia volleyball program in 2021. Benning joined the Georgia staff in January 2017 as an assistant coach. Among Benning's many responsibilities, he also heads up Georgia's recruiting efforts.

The Bulldogs' strong efforts on the service line continued to improve in 2022, registering 1.46 aces per set as a team, ranking second in the SEC. Georgia's 167 total aces also ranked second in the league. Amber Stivrins finished the season second in the league with 0.42 aces per set and atop the SEC with a total of 47 aces to her name.

In the 2020-21 season, the Bulldogs concluded the season sixth in the SEC with 1.30 aces per set. Senior Brynn Chandler tallied 25 aces on the season while junior Kacie Evans tallied 22. Middles Sage (Naves) Powell and Phoebe Awoleye combined for 177 kills for the offense. Awoleye picked up SEC All-Freshman Team accolades in 2020.

Georgia's serving game flourished under Benning's tutelage in 2019, finishing in the top three in the SEC for the third-straight season. Georgia concluded the season with a 1.47 aces per set average. Chandler ranked fifth in the league with 0.31 aces per set. Chandler and Evans each tallied more than 30 total aces in 2019.

The Bulldogs appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2019 for the first time since 2013. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark, finishing 20-10. The last time Georgia had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.

In his first three seasons with the Georgia staff, Benning coached the service game to ranking in the top three in the SEC. Georgia led the league in 2017 with 1.57 aces per set, finishing 25th in the country. In 2018, the Bulldogs ranked third in the conference with a 1.48 clip.

The 2017 and 2018 seasons saw Georgia finish above the .500 mark in both seasons, the first time since 2008 and 2009. In 2017, Benning's first season, the Bulldogs made a jump of 132 places in RPI from the previous season to 57.

Benning previously served in the same capacity for three seasons at Loyola-Marymount on Tom Black's staff. Prior to LMU, Benning served as the Director of Sports for City Beach Volleyball Club since 2004, and spent a total of seven years, including three as head women's volleyball coach at Ohlone College.

While at LMU, Benning helped the Lions to two NCAA appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 after upsetting nationally-ranked Colorado State and Stanford in Palo Alto, California. In addition to LMU's NCAA showings, Benning assisted in notching a pair of 20-win seasons. The 24 wins LMU recorded in 2015 were the most for the program since collecting 26 in 2003. That same season, LMU finished third in the West Coast Conference, another best for the team since 2003. Benning saw LMU roll in accolades during his three years, including four AVCA All-America selections, six AVCA All-Region picks, an AVCA Region Freshman of the Year and 11 All-Conference honorees along with the Defensive Player of the Year in 2016.

Benning helped City Beach win nine Junior National Medals and over 180 Regional and National Tournaments. Consistently one of the top-25 volleyball clubs in the nation, Benning guided over 155 of his City Beach players into collegiate volleyball programs since 2006. In addition to coaching, Benning was responsible for many of the management and executive functions.

Benning, a graduate of Yerba Buena High School in San Jose, California, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Recreational Management from Cal State East Bay in 2014.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
DAVID Dantes

SIXTH SEASON
BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2007

David Dantes joined the Georgia volleyball staff in 2017, fulfilling the role of Director of Volleyball Operations.

Dantes came to Athens following a six-year stint at the University of California as the Golden Bears' Director of Operations. He served as volunteer coach during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

The East Bay, California native added professional experience to his resume when he served on the technical support team for the USA Men's National Team at the 2016 Rio Olympics. His responsibilities included a vast knowledge of statistical and video work during the Olympics.

Dantes' second stint in Berkeley came by way of New Haven, Connecticut, where he was an assistant coach for the Yale volleyball program under head coach Erin Appleman. With his help, the Bulldogs finished 2010 with a share of the Ivy League championship, a 12-2 conference record, and an 18-8 overall mark. Dantes served one season as a volunteer assistant in 2009 before he was promoted to a full-time position.

While serving as a volunteer, he was also the head coach of the Yale women's club volleyball team. The club secured its first league title by winning the Northeast Women's League (NWVCL) championship. Dantes' guidance saw the Bulldogs to their first appearance in the NCVF (National Club Volleyball Federation) Division II National Championship tournament where they captured the national title.

During his two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Cal, the Golden Bears made history with their first finish as an NCAA semifinalist. The 2007 squad finished ranked No. 4 in the nation during his first season at Berkeley. In 2008, the team earned a No. 6 finish, and reached the regional finals of the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history.

Dantes earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, with a minor in religion, from Boston University in May 2007. He competed for the Terriers' men's club volleyball team.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT
JERE W. MOREHEAD

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, the University has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising more than $1.4 billion, and launched an Innovation District initiative to create UGA's campus of the future, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to continue the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia. Since 2013, UGA has increased its research expenditures by 41% and has been ranked among the top five universities in the U.S. each year for research-based products reaching the marketplace. UGA now stands first nationally in this important ranking.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. UGA graduates are in demand: 91% of graduates in 2020 were employed or in graduate school within six months of graduation.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative posts, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export control to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

His external service currently includes serving as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee. He also serves as Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors, a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee, and a member of the NCAA Board of Governors. He is Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness to expand the role of American higher education in the global innovation economy. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Research Alliance, University System of Georgia Foundation, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award – UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence – the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
JOSH BROOKS

Josh Brooks was named J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics in January 2021, after serving 11 years in supporting roles at the University of Georgia. At the time of his hiring, he was the youngest athletic director among the Power Five conferences.

Since Brooks became Athletic Director, UGA has won the 2022 College Football Playoff national championship, the 2021 national title in Equestrian, and 2021 SEC crown in women's tennis. The Bulldogs finished 10th in the 2021 Learfield Directors' Cup, and by finishing 19th in 2022, Georgia is one of just nine schools to post top-25 finishes in the Directors' Cup every year during the 2000s.

In addition, Brooks hired a number of head coaches in his first full year, including two national champions in track and field coach Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer coach Keidane McAlpine, both from USC. Brooks also named successors to longtime head coaches Jack Bauerle (Swimming & Diving) and Lu Harris-Champer (Softball) who both retired. Tony Baldwin took over the softball program in summer 2021, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld, two of Georgia's most successful collegiate swimmers, were named head women's and men's swimming and diving coach respectively.

Academics and community service have been in the forefront of Brooks' administration. A league-best 97 student-athletes were named to the Winter 2022 SEC Academic Honor Roll. Georgia teams have won significant SEC Community Service honors, culminating with Jessica Drop (Cross Country, Track & Field) being named the 2020-21 Brad Davis SEC Community Service Female Leader of the Year. The "Dawgs for Pups" campaign, initiated by the football team, has undertaken several community service projects, including the donation of all ticket revenue from the annual G-Day spring football game, totaling $100,000, to Athens-based Downtown Academy.

Despite the loss of ticket sales during the COVID-19 pandemic, Georgia finished the 2020-21 academic year with a balanced budget and impressive fundraising totals. In June, 2022, the Athletic Association launched a $300 million comprehensive fundraising campaign to support key department priorities over the next five years.

With close attention to the game-day experience, Brooks has spearheaded such fan-centric improvements as family-friendly pricing on concessions at all venues, a partnership with Zaxby's to provide the restaurant chain's popular ice, and the use of pedestal scanners for quicker entry to Sanford Stadium.

Brooks has also placed great emphasis on the student-athlete experience, with a comprehensive Name, Image, and Likeness program, LeGAcy, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools, and brand-building training.

On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

Brooks returned to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics after serving as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15.

Prior to his tenures at Millsaps and ULM, he had served in capacities at UGA as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14).

During his time at UGA, Brooks worked closely with former Director of Athletics Greg McGarity, overseeing all internal and external operations. He served as the liaison with the Office of University Architects on all athletic construction projects, as well as with the president's office. His responsibilities at included management of the departments of facility support, graphics and design, and turf management.

Within the football program, Brooks played key roles in scheduling and bowl game operations. His additional responsibilities included planning the 2013 Jason Aldean Concert in Sanford Stadium. Brooks also served as the sport facilitator for football and men's and women's track and field and cross country.

A native of Hammond, Louisiana, Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

The Classic City ATHENS

#1 COLLEGE TOWN IN THE U.S.
by Fansided

#1 HOT COLLEGE MUSIC SCENE
by Rolling Stone

Athens is one of
AMERICA'S BEST COLLEGE TOWNS
according to Thrillist

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre (pictured below) and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars.
